

More Bad News to Perform on “Homecoming” Night

By: Staff reports

View Original

On November 26, 2008 More Bad News, one Fayette County’s premier musical entertainment groups will perform at Duck Hollow’s Crystal Mirage banquet facility, located at the Duck Hollow Golf Club in Uniontown, PA. Doors will open at 8 PM, with the concert beginning at 9.

More Bad News is headlined by lead vocalists Ed and Lisa Cupp, accompanied by Rod Franks (bass), Diane Dayton (vocals), and Tom Corrado (drums). They have been performing locally for over 20 years, drawing crowds from Fayette and surrounding counties.

“The night before Thanksgiving always presents opportunity to see friends and family with whom you may have lost contact. It’s kind of like a homecoming football game without the queen,” says George Laskey, site and property manager for Duck Hollow Golf Club.